

WE NOMINATE

Juan Manuel Lopez, who some 30 years "out of college" has translated into actuality his deeply held belief that the "privilege of serving others is the highest reward life can hold." A fortnight ago Lopez-54 years old, a remarkable authority in the realm of books, a Naval Intelligence Officer in World War II-was ordained a priest in the Protestant Episcopal Church and promptly turned down an attractive offer from a New England parish in order to carry forward his present assignment as Vicar of the Mission of St. John's Church in Fords, N. J.

For 20 years manager of the Princeton University Store's General Book Department and a vestryman of Trinity Church at the time he volunteered for naval service in 1942, Lopez approached the priesthood slowly, as if motivated by some unseen powerful force. His wartime tour of duty, during which he added Portuguese to his ready command of Spanish and French, "sold him" on the importance and satisfactions of working with others. He consequently applied for a post-war position with the Veterans' Administration and in 1946 became "V.A. Contact Representative" here in Princeton. Shortly thereafter he was transferred to Washington as a "V.A. Liaison Officer" with the Department of State, concerned with problems of ex-GI's working and studying in all parts of the world

Lopez, a native of Trenton and the grandson of the founder of Princeton's Marsh & Company, made the decision in 1949 and a tremendous step it was! In learning how to study all over again, something he hadn't done since his Lawrenceville School and Princeton University days, he entered the Columbia School of General Studies. In 1951-the day before he attended the 29th reunion of the Princeton Class of 1922-he received his Bachelor of Science degree. Another year as a student in the General Theological Seminary, New York, completed his preparations for the three-day canonical examinations of the Diocese of New Jersey.

In these hectic recent years Lopez, whose Princetontrained father was active in the Cuban mission field for nearly a half-century, not only commuted between Valley Road and Manhattan but also held forth as Seminarian Assistant in the nearby Rocky Hill and Sand Hills Episcopalian parishes. Last summer, even while cramming for his appearance before the Board of Examining Chaplains, he was lauded for all that he did as a representative of New Jersey churches in administering to the needs of the 1,000-plus Puerto Rican migrant workers in this area. Early fall brought ordination as a deacon and the call to his 150 member Fords church

For striving to reflect in whatever he undertakes the true spirit of Christianity; for possessing the courage to act upon his own convictions; for helping others understand that men "walk by faith, not by sight": he is the Editors' nominee for

The Heat's On. Less than a month ago, Princeton was experiencing snow flurries. This week, the thermometer moved heatedly past the 80-degree mark. It was sufficiently warm to change many a daily habit but seemingly not quite hot enough to result in one finding alligators in one's garden.

Still and all, that was the report brought to a Cleveland Lane resident by her gardener, who had exhibit A to prove his case. The 'gator wasn't very big, but he was hardy. Seems he had been an Easter present to a family over on Library Place and had felt the urge to explore, something that hadn't been possible while he had been a resident of The Pet Shop. "For the past six weeks, no one knew what had become of him, until the Florida-like temperatures brought him out of hiding.

Alligators in the garden . . . It may be a tough summer.

Tavern Robbed. Wednesday morning shortly after 4 a.m., an inkwell, an ashtray and a paper stapler sailed across the lobby of the Nassau Tavern. The target was a hooded bandit, armed with a .32 revolver; the unloaded ammunition was fired by night clerk Raymond Heckman, 59-year-old resident of Kingston.

Barking, "Give me your money," the robber vaulted the desk and struck Mr. Heckman on the head with the butt of his pistol before the latter escaped in search of help. Three shots from the revolver broke open the cash regis—Continued on Page 2

Donald Thompson, 144 John Street, the night belihop, raced downstairs to telephone police, found himself without a nickel to insert in the pay telephone and ran all the way to Borough Hall to give the alarm.

Still Growing. The Princeton community, which has felt the effect throughout the post-war period of residential development, learned this week of two more. Symbolic of the area's steady growth as one of the East's most favored residential communities, they chart a trend which will soon raise estimates of the population served by the Princeton post office to 20,000.

On the 250-acre tract once known as the "June Murray Farm" a new corporation, Shipetaukin Country Farms, will huild homes prized to sell upwards of $30,000. Professor Francis A. Comstock, a member of the Princeton University School of Architecture since 1925, is the architectural consultant; Louis Rakin, who maintains an office in his home, Shipetaukin Farm, will supervise the development.

The first home, located on a three and a half acre tract, is nearing completion and is open for inspection. The area to be developed stretches from Lawrenceville and Province Line Roads eastwards to the Delaware and Raritun Canal.

the Delaware and Rarltun Canal.
For much of the program planned by the corporation and other details of what it will offer, see the advertisement on page 13.

"Riverside," the 130-acre estate which has been in the Walter B. Howe family since Civil War days, will be developed as a residential site by the newly-formed Foster Investment Corporation. Its president is Walter B. Foster, who has been associated with the Howe real estate and insurance agency for 35 years; its secretary. Russell H. Servis, who has been with that agency for a quarter-century.

Initial plans call for construction

Initial plans call for construction of 55 homes, with preliminary engineering developments scheduled for completion by September. Eventually, the tract will be divided to accommodate some 300 homes, with the smallest site just under half an acre.

Plans call for construction this summer of a 70-foot wide street to serve as the entrance to the area, which hes between Nassau Street on the west and Lake Carnegi on the east. The Textile Research Institute property is the northern boundary, while the southern line is adjacent to land owned by the University, including the Harrison Street housing project.

Court Cases. Motor vehicle inspectors stopped scores of drivers on Bayard Lane and Stockton Street a fortnight ago, Last Tuesday, these Princetomans were among those fined for failing to have their licenses or registration in their possession:

GROUP ARTS

has accomplished a great deal in its six years of life. It is the principal outlet for community self expression. It holds the annual exhibitions in Palmer Square. Marian Anderson and Dorothy Maynor sang here under its aegis. Twice a year it shows a series of motion picture classics. It conducts art workshops for children (Toddlers) and adults.

It is Princeton's Community Art Center.

The fees for these workshops are deliberately lower than the cost to Group Arts. Otherwise, enrollment would not be possible for many of those who are interested. Scholarships are provided for many. Thus, like any other community service organizations, we ask the community to help support the work. Group Arts must have Princeton's support to carry out the ambitious program it has outlined for itself this year.

Without the inconvenience of shopping dealer show rooms, you can get accurate, non-technical and technical information on the 1953 automotive merchandise. You will get comparisons on makes, models, performance factors, riding qualities, power steering, automotic transmissions, trade-in values and many other factors. Such information has dollar and cents value, when you go to buy your new car.

TO GIVE YOU A FEW HIGHLIGHTS, one phase of the report is a study on "owner loyalty." In other words, does the car owner like his present car well enough to buy the same make again? DE SOTO V-8 stands at the top of the list. Some of the standings in this list will astound you.

WHEN IT COMES TO RATING CARS BY PRICE CLASS, the DE SOTO V-8 FIRE DOME again takes top rating. The comments and reasons for the ratings of the automobiles in this class will open the eyes of many prospective buyers.

WE URGE EVERY CAR OWNER to check reports such as this, before buying any car. Read the unbiased accounts of the good and bad points of the new cars. Then we invite every prospective buyer of a new automobile to come in and drive the new 1953 DE SOTO FIRE DOME V-8. A few minutes at the wheel, added to the words of the experts, will convince you that the DE SOTO is the best in its class—and the 1953 car for you.

WHY DON'T YOU join the thousands of owners who continue to buy DE SOTO year after year?

Although not a resident of the horough, I would like to draw to the attention of borough authorities and the police department the condition which presently exists at the corner of Elm Road, Cleveland

Lane and Rosedale Road. It is a dangerous one, as there have been accidents there, and to my own knowledge, several have been narrowly missed.

The trooble is encountered by The trooble is encountered by vehicles coming down Elm Road with the intention of turning to the left to proceed west on Rosedale Road; and by vehicles proceeding east on Rosedale Road with the intention of going straight ahead to Cleveland Lane. The operators of vehicles proceeding with the above-mentioned intentions are unable to see each other, and little opportunity is given for a correct maneuver

The following suggestions are offered as a possible means of bettering the conditions of this unfortunate traffic problem;

1. That the Rosedale-Cleveland Lane-Elm Road intersection condition be corrected by making this a right angle corner;

2. That the Elm Road approaches could then be made stop streets.

Strawhat Trail. In a mere three weeks the summer stock season will be underway and Princetonians will have a wide variety of theatre fare to choose from, including Shakespeare, perennial comedy favorites, recent plays, several premieres, operettas and musical comedies.

Following is a brief listing of the proposed offerings of the University Players (at Murray Theatre), the Bucks County Playhouse (New Hope) and the Music Circus (just outside Lamhertville). Complete schedules and casts will be reported as they are announced, along with full ticket information next week.

MURRAY THEATRE

The new University Players group will open up on Monday, June 22, in Murray Theatre which will be air cooled. Producer Charles H. Schultz expects to start with "The Tempest," hut a break on releasing might see a Noel Coward comedy as the first offering.

The six-week season will definitely include a night of one-acters and the French farce "An Italian Straw Hat." Depending on the casting to be completed this week, the remaining weeks will be chosen from among works by Shaw, Chekov, Molnar, Tennessee Williams, Soroyan and others.

BUCKS COUNTY PLAYHOUSE

"Mr. Roberts," the vastly successful Broadway comedy hit, will open the season at the Bucks County Playhouse in New Hope on Eriday, June 5. The opening will mark Theron Bamberger's 13th season of summer stock at the picturesque playhouse.

Other plays to follow include "The Country Girl." "Voice of the Turtle," "Goodbye Again," "The Happy Time," "Glad Tidings," 'Old Acquaintance," "Our Town" and "The Little Foxes." Others will be added to the list shortly.

MUSIC CIRCUS

St. John Terrell's musical theatre-in-the-round will also open on Friday. June 5, with the familiar operetta "Sweethearts." A 16-week season is planned at the ingenious entertainment tent, just outside Lambertville.

A sampling of future offerings includes "Panama Hattie," "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," "Song of Norway," "Showboat," "Die Fledermaus," "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," "Call Me Madam and "High Button Slioes." Offenbach's "Orpheus in the Underworld" with a new book and lyrics by the late Ring Lardner will be premiered the week of August 18-23.

to the man who can afford a better home

Have you yearned for a home designed for you...for comfortable country living ... for a home in a beautiful rural area, yet handy to everything and everywhere? Have you looked, then ended up still yearning ... and feeling that this generation of builders has simply ignored you? ... Then pull up a chair and let's talk things over ...

About 2 miles west of the University, at the Lawrenceville-Princeton Road (Route No. 206), corner of Province Line Road, is the old June Murray Farm... about 250 acres of enchanting country land. We are dividing this farm into a small number of modest country estates where you can arrange to build your home or we will be glad to build it for you.

Our program is purposefully flexible so that we do not "develop into a development" . . . Every precaution is being taken to insure the maintenance of the present rural character of the area. . . . We have evolved a program which permits you—searching for a better homesite—to choose not only the location of your home, but also the plans and the builder.

Come around and select your home from our portfolio of plans. They can be revised to suit you. We will give a firm price for the land and building. Or you can purchase the plot and select your own architect and builder. We will be happy if you select us to do the building . . . but that is not important, since there are other good builders in town.

Perhaps you are not ready to build at this time? Don't you think it might be a good idea to buy the land now, while there is plenty to choose from?

Incidentally, all homes not planned under our supervision must be approved by us...this is to protect our country spot from becoming the victim of an "architectural holiday."

To get a good idea of the calibre of work we do and the home-styling you may expect, why not drop around and look over the one story house we are building at the corner of Lawrenceville Road and Province Line Road? Space does not permit adequate description. The bare statistics are 7 rooms plus breakfast room, two baths, large basement, large two-car garage, plenty of closet space, more than three acres of ground.

The writer's office is across the road at Shipetankin Farm. The 'phone number is Princeton 1-4417.

la gest is entirely plastic (light in style, color and price. One of the weight, you see.)

It has a zip case for underwear, a special pocket for cleansing tissue, plus two plactic jars, two hottles, a soap dish, toothbrush holder and a cologne atomizer. All for $6.95.

Not many coat-hangers in European hotels, they tell us. A plaid toffeta hag will help you out by providing a folding plastic honger, and four clothespins on hooks. Bottle of soap-flakes, too. With extra space for your own toiletries, this is a lot for $1.95.

An unfitted waterproof hag Includes, among its many pockets, a zip outside pocket. The top zips, too, and the hag has hondles. Price is $3.50. A tiny hargain—$2 for a pale hiue check zip hag with four plastic containers. What looks like a gold evening pouch turns out to be a hag with plastic brush, comb and clothes hrush. All for $2.75.

On the display case at Artistic, you'll find some rare items: real tortoise shell combs, made with that no-slip arrangement in the teeth. They come from Switzerland, and one pair is $1.50.

No Plasma Required. No first-aid needed if you drop the new shock-poot watch at The Watch Shop. 20 Nassau. It's completely resistant to shock. Resistant isn't quite the word, however; "resiliant" might be hetter hecause the watch is made with halance staff and 17 jowels set into a flexible arm device that acts like the knew-action of a car. This cushions the watch against jars and shocks.

You think of shock-proof watches as men's watches, but this sounds like a good women's watch to us. Think of the times you take off a watch to wash vegetables, dishes, or the baby, and how often a small careless arm will sweep the watch to the floor. Yes, it's housewives who are rough on time, Price for this Gothic is $39.75. Men's styles slightly more.

of He's Hot Under the Collar... buy him a Palm Beach tie, frosted with riylon, easy to wash. In addition to the striped ties of last year, there are figured ties, like a paisley with widely-spaced flowers, gardencool for summer. You'll find them at Morris Men's Shop, 30 Witherspoon.

Beau Brummel ties feature a light, quiet ground with a single group of figures in the center: two small diamonds perhaps, or something that looks like a compressed graph. The simplicity of these ties makes them look fresh for warm weather.

All kinds of sports shirts in this shop—we liked a plain white polo with one wide stripe around its chest. Another has a navy collar and yoke on white. There are pullovers, hasques, knits—including a new model with short knit sleeves on a body and collar of liner. For $5.95.

Prices from $1.95 to $3.50 on other shirts. Better heed all this, lest Father's Day slip through your fingers.

Home is the Hunter, A table lamp based on a mallard duck, wrought in heavy metal, will be a pleasant reminder of hunting trays, if you have a duck-hunter for a husband. These ducks at Wine and Game, 6 Nassau, are bronze or silver finish with spread wings and detailed markings, down to the last pin-feather.

One shade has ducks painted on it, the other is a plain fabric shade lined with green. Each one is $24.95.

An early American room could use a table lamp whose base is a glass case. Inside the case is a soldier and cannon from Hastet's Delaware Regiment of '76 — figure about three inches high. The lamp's shade is plain black trimmed in gold, and the lamp base is black, too.

Some new high-hall and old-fashioned glasses are decorated with trout flies. Another set of high-hall glasses has a golfer painted on the side and a silver rim around the top. Fine for prizes. There's a golfer's ashtray, too, in heavy creamcolored pottery with gold band. For $3.35

Man on a Tightrope (Sun.-Tues.) is a suspense melodrama about the attempts of an old-time Czech circus troupe attempting to escape from hehind the iron curtain. Elia Kazan's direction does much to make a telling story and depiction of people cowed by a police state. Frederick March, Terry Moore, Gloria Grahame and Cameron Mitchell head the cast, and the outdoor shots filmed in Bayaria add to the realism.

By the Light of the Silvery Moon (Wed.-Sat.) follows the unassuming formula of its direct predeces-"On Moonlight Bay.' Booth Tarkington small-town characters. Same Doris Day and Gordon McRae crooning old favorites. Same sentimental corn. Techni-

The Stars Are Singing (Fri.-Sat.) features the talents of Rosemarie Clooney, Lauritz Melchior and Anna Maria Alberghetti in a typical lightweight show biz plot, re-peatedly interrupted by musical numbers. Many of them are quite attractive, as is the personality of Miss Clooney.

On the Riviera (Mon.-Tues.) is one of Danny Kaye's lively suc-cesses (vintage '51) in the bright songs, patter and dance vein. Gene Tierney and Corinne Calvet also star. Technicolor, Monte Carlo set-

Tight Little Island (Wed.-Thurs.) sparkles as a completely delightful British comedy of about four years ago, dealing with an island-full of thirsty Scots and a cargo of whis-key they salvage. Filmed in the Hebrides, with Basil Radford, Bruce Scton and Joan Greenwood.

Oesert Legion (Fri.-Sat.) is elaborate, mildly interesting and absolutely standard stuff about Legionnaire (Alan Ladd) who finds adventure and a beautiful princess (Arlene Dahl) in fabulous mountain kingdom. Richard Conte as the villain and a number of dancing girls are also featured. Technicolor.

Music Notes, The Princeton University Orchestra will give a con-cert this Sunday at 8:30 p.m. in Alexander Hall under the sponsor-ship of the Friends of Music at Princeton. No tickets are required.

Russell Ames Cook will conduct a program which includes the Over-ture to "Il Matrimonio Segretd" by Cimaroso and Mozart's Concerto for Bassoon and Orchestra, K. 191, with John S. Kitts '53 as soloist, The second half will include Beethoven's Concerto No. 4 for Piano and Orchestra, Op. 58, with Manfred Clynes as soloist, and Aaron Copland's Suite from the ballet "Appalachian Spring."

Arthur Mendel, now the head of the University's music department, will conduct his final concert with The Cantata Singers this Thursday at 7:45 p.m. at St. Michael's Church in New York, Resigning after 17 years at the head of the noted perlormers of Baroque sacred choral works, Mr. Mendel will conduct Bach's B minor Mass.

Pay For Your Heat The Easy Budget Way

Most families handle household expenses on some sort of budget system — hut fuel hills usually don't fit very well into a system . . . Because weather varies, it is hard to know how much a hill will be for any single month. And LARGE bills hit the budget during the midwinter months when the weather is

The Better Way . . .

We recommend that you pay for oil with our Flasy-Budget Plan. It works this way: The amount of oil you will burn in the next heating season is estimated in advance. Next, we multiply this amount by the estimated average price of oil for the next season. Then we divide the total into equal payments which you gay at the same time each regard, the content the which you pay at the same time each month, through heating season year.

Costs Nothing Extra . . .

There is NO INTEREST, NO EXTRA CHARGE of any kind for the Easy-Budget Plan. For the oil you use you will pay the price in effect ut time of delivery, just as you now do. You will receive a meter ticket with each delivery showing the gallons delivered and the price per gallon. But payments will be more convenient to make,

More and more families are paying for their oil in this more practical way. If the plan sounds good to you, please let us know and we will gladly put it into effect for you.
